Kean Child Care and Development Center

Teacher 2, 12 Months Grant Funded

Under the direction of the Director of the Child Care Center, the Teacher is responsible for the general supervision and management of children between the ages of two and a half and five. The Teacher plans and implements a program of developmentally appropriate experiences for children, demonstrating best early childhood practices. They supervise assistants and student teachers; communicate with parents; attend professional development events to maintain professional competency; and perform related work as required. All practices must be consistent with guidelines put forth by the Kean University Child Care and Development Center, College of Education and NJ Preschool Teaching & Learning Standards. This position requires the ability to work a flexible schedule on a regular basis which includes early morning and evening hours.

This position is grant funded through the Child Care Access Means Parents in Schools (CCAMPIS) Grant. Continued employment is contingent upon renewal of grant funding.

Qualifications: Possession of a valid New Jersey Teacher's Certificate of Pre-School through 3rd Grade (Standard, Emergency or Provisional) or Permanent Endorsement, issued by the Board of Examiners of the New Jersey Department of Education is required. A minimum of 1-2-years of classroom teaching experience; experience working with children with special needs; and a current Child Development Associate (CDA) Certificate with a Preschool or Infant/Toddler Endorsement is preferred. In addition to a pre-employment physical and successfully completing background screening checks at the time of hire, the Teacher position has physical requirements. These include: the ability to constantly move, stand, sit, bend and kneel for short and long periods of time, hand dexterity and the ability to lift and move up to 40 pounds; ability to assume postures in low levels to allow physical and
