Undergraduate Education at the University at Buffalo seeks to hire an student services advisor to support transfer students recruited to participate in an evidence-based national model, CUNY ACE: Accelerate, Complete, Engage, proven to improve the success and graduation rates of students who participate. Eligible transfer students who participate will receive direct academic support from you and will receive a tuition gap waiver, textbook, and transportation stipends. In this role, you will provide a broad range of administrative and advising support functions. The incumbent will report to this program's Director and will be a member of an integrated team providing individual academic and personal support to help students achieve academic success and successfully navigate the university. Key accountabilities and responsibilities

- Delivers comprehensive advisement support services to an assigned group of students through degree completion including assisting students in the development of academic and personal skill-building tied to undergraduate student success (e.g. stress management, study skills, self-advocacy skills).
- Reviews student progress and tracks student use of academic support services.
- Conducts regular outreach to faculty and other university staff as needed to support student success and provides appropriate, accurate and timely referrals to campus and community resources, as needed.
- Maintains accurate tracking data and notes for each assigned student, recommending appropriate referrals.
- Maintains university-wide and college-specific knowledge of relevant policies, procedures, resources and services associated with student success, academic achievement and transfer student needs.
- Special assignments as determined by Director and Assistant Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education.

We invite individuals to apply whose perspectives and experiences will enrich and strengthen our organization. Undergraduate Education serves a diverse constituency of patrons, and our employees, services and policies strive to honor and reflect this diversity. We encourage candidates who thrive in a welcoming multicultural environment to apply.
