Coordinate proposal development and packaging:

- Coordinate proposal development efforts with faculty team members.
- Maintain a current understanding of funding sponsors, their guidelines, and their priorities.
- Thoroughly review funding solicitations.
- Develop proposal outlines, checklists, and timelines to facilitate proposal planning.
- Initiate and maintain regular communication with faculty proposal teams, SPS (Sponsored Project Services), and unit leadership throughout the grant proposal development process.
- Organize meetings and follow up with faculty teams.
- Facilitate contact with funding agencies, when requested.

Review grant proposal documents:

- Draft, format, secure, and review required grant proposal documents, including biographical sketches, current and pending funding, management plans, budget justifications, letters of support, training records, and other required supporting documentation.
- Ensure all documents are compliant with sponsor guidelines.

Assist in finding funding:

- Provide assistance to university faculty in finding appropriate federal grant opportunities.

Skills:

Time management, attention to detail, strong communication skills and the ability to remain confident in a fast-paced environment are essential. Individuals in this role must be adept problem-solvers who are able to manage multiple projects and requests under strict deadlines. The individual(s) should be able to work independently and collaboratively with other ORA / SPS staff members, as well as with faculty teams.
