transformative opportunity it provides to a large and diverse student body; its public mission and commitment to equity and social justice; and its roots in the California experience, animated by such values as innovation, questioning the status quo, and respect for the environment and nature. Since its founding in 1868, Berkeley has fueled a perpetual renaissance, generating unparalleled intellectual, economic and social value in California, the United States and the world.

We are looking for equity-minded applicants who represent the full diversity of California and who demonstrate a sensitivity to and understanding of the diverse academic, socioeconomic, cultural, disability, gender identity, sexual orientation, and ethnic backgrounds present in our community. When you join the team at Berkeley, you can expect to be part of an inclusive, innovative and equity-focused community that approaches higher education as a matter of social justice that requires broad collaboration among faculty, staff, students and community partners. In deciding whether to apply for a position at Berkeley, you are strongly encouraged to consider whether your values align with our Guiding Values and Principles, our Principles of Community, and our Strategic Plan.

At UC Berkeley, we believe that learning is a fundamental part of working, and our goal is for everyone on the Berkeley campus to feel supported and equipped to realize their full potential. We actively support this by providing all of our staff employees with at least 80 hours (10 days) of paid time per year to engage in professional development activities. Share your excitement for STEM learning with the next generation! For over 50 years, The Lawrence has been providing fun and engaging science learning experiences. Now you can be part of our team as a Teen Research Program Residential Advisor and

- Inspire teens with curiosity, excitement, and passion for science learning.
- Demystify the college experience.
- Mentor teens on their unique STEM pathway.

This position is an ideal opportunity for an undergraduate student. As a Residential Advisor, you will facilitate fun, engaging, and meaningful weekday evening and Sunday social/ learning activities for teens. It is a great opportunity for growth, and you'll gain valuable experience in teaching and mentoring. In this role you will:

- Manage a social learning and dorm overnight environment for participants' well-being and safety.
- Thoroughly understand the dorm and campus building safety and security and implement emergency procedures as needed.
- Develop an understanding of, and the ability to facilitate extracurricular evening and Sunday programming for teens in a fun, engaging, and meaningful way.
- Serve as a role model and mentor for teens in grades 7-12 and inspire them to find their pathway in STEM and higher education.
- Lead teens around campus in an energetic, appropriate, and fun way.
- Be responsible for extracurricular activities materials management, including set-up, clean-up, and storage.
- Adhere to all of the policies and procedures of UC Berkeley and The Lawrence.
- Other duties as assigned.

Required Qualifications

- Responsible, organized, and healthy work ethic capable of working independently and collaboratively with an educational team.
- Strong customer service and verbal communication skills.
- Experienced and excited to share college experiences with teens grades 7-12.
- Demonstrated creative teaching methods in informal or formal learning environments.
- Reliable, punctual, and available to work for the required dates and times.
- Able to lift up to 25 pounds (carts are available) and traverse uneven grounds.
