Job Description

Auburn University Facilities Management seeks candidates for an HR Generalist position, with a special focus on employee training and workforce development through the design and facilitation of Facilities Management apprenticeship programs, career pathing, and student career development programs. Additionally, this position will work to promote workforce development services by attending events, and speaking at schools and other venues.

The mission of Auburn University's Facilities Management is to provide highly responsive and quality support services to build and maintain the facilities, grounds, and infrastructure of the University campus. We strive to be a client-focused organization, one that is dedicated to serving our many customers throughout Auburn University. Our goal is to be a value-added partner to our clients. Facilities Management employs more than 450 talented and professional individuals who are responsible for the coordination of construction, maintenance, and infrastructure of the AU campus. We have an in-house team of architects, engineers, construction managers, designers, skilled craftsmen, and custodial service staff who take great pride in delivering high-quality and on-time
