Job Description

Sponsored Projects Services (SPS), within the Office of the Vice President for Research and Economic Development (VPRED), provides leadership in grants and contracts administration from proposal development through closeout, working closely with diverse university faculty and compliance offices to ensure the responsible stewardship of external funding.

SPS is seeking a CONTRACTS MANAGER to review and negotiate research contracts and related agreements from federal, state and nonprofit funding agencies. This position is responsible for learning Research Foundation and University requirements regarding terms and conditions and the approval process.

The Contracts Manager will manage a diverse portfolio, working independently with minimal oversight, and act as a liaison between the University and external sponsors and internally with other university business offices, department administrators, and faculty, concerning policies, procedures, and requirements in the administration and execution of contracts and in establishing and modifying project accounts. This position must also be able to work collaboratively within SPS and be an effective team member to further the efficiencies and capabilities of the office.

Responsibilities include:

- Review, draft, negotiate, and finalize a wide range of contracts, including research contracts and related agreements, while ensuring compliance with institutional policies, Research Foundation policies and applicable laws and regulations
- Collaborate with faculty, staff, legal counsel, compliance offices and external partners to gather necessary information and documents to facilitate contract negotiation and execution.
- Conduct thorough contract analysis to identify potential risks and issues and provide recommendations for mitigation strategies.
- Advise internal stakeholders on contract-related matters, including contract interpretation, rights, and obligations.

The successful candidate is expected to work collaboratively and to stay apprised of evolving compliance regulations and to incorporate those into future agreements.

This position is eligible for a flexible/hybrid work arrangement.
