The University at Buffalo (UB) School of Nursing (SON) Office of Student Services is seeking a temporary (6-8 months) Student Engagement Coordinator to deliver a broad set of services, program initiatives, and events in support of recruitment, advisement, retention, and overall academic success for nursing students.

The Student Engagement Coordinator will report to the Director for Students Services and collaborate closely with the Office of Academic Affairs, faculty, and staff to provide support in achieving enrollment targets, retention goals, and overall mission of the school.

Responsibilities Include:

- Provide student advisement and assist with early intervention referral and case management.
- Assist prospective students with navigating and university/school application process.
- Coordinate the onboarding process, monitor completion of acceptance requirements, and assist in the delivery of orientation sessions for newly admitted undergraduate students.
- Coordinate the application review process for one or more academic program(s).
- Facilitate review of transfer credits.
- Provide general administrative support for student services offices, programs and events.
