Reporting to the Sr. Associate Director of International Admissions and Enrollment, the International Admissions Counselor will find an exciting, purposeful and impactful career while supporting, advising and counseling college-bound students through all stages of the college admissions process, such as but not limited to, recruiting, admitting and enrolling international students into the University at Buffalo, New York's flagship.

This career opportunity will be attractive if you have a Bachelor's degree and experience in fields working with college-bound students, public service, philanthropy, hospitality or in a profession that requires you to provide attention to details for processes and procedures. This position resides in a college admission setting working with college-bound students and their advocates, therefore, preferable experience in a teaching, student services, admission or counseling environment would bring desired qualities to this opportunity.

Key Responsibilities Include:

- Counsels and advises prospective students and their families concerning application requirements and criteria, UB academic programs, admission policies and procedures. This includes fielding phone inquiries, in-person appointments, and group presentations.
- Performs high level, detailed and personalized outreach to prospective students, such as: in-person and virtual admissions presentations, attend events and receptions, phone calling, emailing, and other communications as needed.
- Assist with all phases of the undergraduate and graduate application process and decision making.
- Verifying and evaluating foreign and domestic academic credentials; verifying and evaluating financial and immigration documents. Determine immigration status, evaluate immigration-related documents, prepare and issue I-20s to incoming students.
- Create and maintain records, enter data, and validate data in multiple databases / systems.
- File review activities include monitoring and completing files for completeness.
- Interpret and transmit information to students, counselors, university administrators, and academic units in a manner that exudes high-quality customer and student service.
- U.S. citizenship or U.S. Permanent Resident status is required for this position in order to access government databases and issue I-20s.
- This position requires domestic and international travel as assigned, therefore the applicant must have a valid U.S. drivers license as well as a passport (or eligibility to secure a passport).
