other vendors as needed.

The Events Manager will:

- Oversee a slate of school events from planning to execution, coordinating with multiple areas throughout the school and campus as needed, convening planning committees when appropriate.
- Assist other staff as well as faculty hosting events to help streamline event planning and execution and ensure all needs are considered and resources identified.
- Develop and provide checklists, as well as internal and external timelines to create and execute off-campus and on-campus events based on size, scope, audience, and goals.
- Serve as functional area lead for using and implementing UB's event registration and management system so various users can maximize system.
- Provide logistical support including event schedules, booking venues, staffing, food and beverage requirements, and managing participant registration.
- Ensure that post-event surveys, thank you communications, and other related engagement items are completed so that benchmarking data can be compiled for future planning.
