extends the knowledge derived from research to the people of the state. The AgCenter is headquartered in Baton Rouge and has 12 “on campus” academic departments and five regions which are made up of 16 branch research stations and an extension office in each parish. For more information, visit the AgCenter’s web site at www.lsuagcenter.com.

Position Description: This position’s primary role is as buyer for the LSU Agricultural Center. This position reports to the Procurement Manager, but also receives oversight from the Director of Accounting Services. Specific duties are as follows:

- Assists the Procurement Manager with all phases of the overall procurement function for the AgCenter. Handles areas/units assigned, assists with overflow work and in peak periods. This includes procurement of all commodities, including research and scientific equipment, computer equipment and software, supplies, services, and professional, personal, and consulting services for the AgCenter units throughout the state.
- Reviews and negotiates contract language and monitors contracts for compliance with federal, state and university rules and regulations.
- Works with unit administrators, officials and other personnel to provide technical assistance and solve problems associated with procurement activities. Provides oral and written interpretation of policies and procedures, rules and regulations, revised statutes and internal guidelines to AgCenter and vendor communities.
- Works closely with the Procurement Manager on procurement as relates to construction activities governed by Louisiana Revised Statutes Title 38 (Public Contracts, Works and Improvements). Construction activities fall under a different Louisiana statute which is highly complex. This requires knowledge of a separate set of policies, procedures and operational details.
- Works closely with AgCenter Accounting Services staff regarding compliance with applicable procurement rules, policies, and requirements for all AgCenter purchases.
- Performs other duties as assigned.
