- communication for students, faculty, staff, and outside researchers.
- Collaborating with fellow team members to develop new services and programs in emerging areas of engineering education and research.
 - Communicating current issues and trends in scholarly communication and open access publishing to faculty and staff in relevant disciplines.
 - Building strong collaborative relationships with faculty in SEAS regarding best practices for data management.
 - Demonstrating commitment to continued professional growth and active participation in professional activities and service.

Based upon your qualifications, experience, the University's standards for continuing appointment, and Libraries' standards in librarianship, service, and scholarship, we anticipate appointing you at the rank of Senior Assistant Librarian. You will report to the Head of Science and Engineering Library Services and work with librarians and staff across the University Libraries.

The University Libraries is a welcoming multicultural environment that serves an increasingly diverse constituency of patrons. Our employees, services, collections, and policies honor and reflect this diversity and we invite individuals to apply whose perspectives and experiences will enrich and strengthen our organization.
