The Center for the Enhancement of Learning and Teaching (CELT), a division of the Office of the Provost, invites applications for the position of Program Administrator. The Office of the Provost oversees the University's education, research, faculty affairs, innovation, diversity, equity, inclusion, justice, and accessibility operations. This position is an excellent opportunity for a professional to contribute to a dynamic, well-supported, and seasoned teaching center.

CELT works across all Tufts campuses and schools. The Center's mission (<http://provost.tufts.edu/celt/>) is to collaborate with faculty, departments, and schools across Tufts to advance a culture of learner-centered, critically reflective teaching and leadership rooted in evidence and equity. We aspire to influence and advance the Tufts educational mission by creating an environment that nurtures faculty growth, values the student as a whole person, and promotes innovative and equitable learner-centered practices. We practice these same values in our everyday work and interactions at the Center.

The Center is supported and guided by an enthusiastic and dedicated cross-school advisory board, and CELT has been recognized through the Tufts Champion of Collaboration Award for "successfully building diverse and productive relationships across and beyond the University."

The Center is located on the Medford campus, and the person in this role will be an important part of a dynamic, collaborative, and supportive team that works to develop programming to support ongoing teaching improvement and innovation.

What You'll Do

The Program Administrator is a critical player in every detail of the daily operations of the Center, providing advanced support and coordination for the Center staff. The Program Administrator:

- Oversees management of logistics for both virtual and in-person meetings and events including event promotion, registration processes, attendance tracking, travel and arrangements for speakers, room booking, food orders, and facilities set up.
- Assists in the design and layout of publications, newsletters, and messaging including proofreading, editing, and drafting communications materials and maintaining the Center's website.
- Monitors the Center's budgets and works with the Director on budget forecasting, posts expenses and payroll, reconciles travel expenses, tracks and enters staff time off in the Tufts systems.
- Proactively initiates program development with staff
