transformative opportunity it provides to a large and diverse student body; its public mission and commitment to equity and social justice; and its roots in the California experience, animated by such values as innovation, questioning the status quo, and respect for the environment and nature. Since its founding in 1868, Berkeley has fueled a perpetual renaissance, generating unparalleled intellectual, economic and social value in California, the United States and the world.

We are looking for equity-minded applicants who represent the full diversity of California and who demonstrate a sensitivity to and understanding of the diverse academic, socioeconomic, cultural, disability, gender identity, sexual orientation, and ethnic backgrounds present in our community. When you join the team at Berkeley, you can expect to be part of an inclusive, innovative and equity-focused community that approaches higher education as a matter of social justice that requires broad collaboration among faculty, staff, students and community partners. In deciding whether to apply for a position at Berkeley, you are strongly encouraged to consider whether your values align with our Guiding Values and Principles, our Principles of Community, and our Strategic Plan.

At UC Berkeley, we believe that learning is a fundamental part of working, and our goal is for everyone on the Berkeley campus to feel supported and equipped to realize their full potential. We actively support this by providing all of our staff employees with at least 80 hours (10 days) of paid time per year to engage in professional development activities. Departmental Overview

Organization Advising and Student Involvement Services (OASIS):

OASIS is a department of the Dean of Students Office and is at the center of student life at UC Berkeley. This campus department is responsible for facilitating leadership development opportunities in addition to encouraging student involvement and engagement within the campus community. As a team of dedicated and committed student affairs professionals, OASIS promotes a student-centered learning environment by advising and empowering students to pursue their co-curricular interests, cultivate their leadership skills, and develop holistically. OASIS provides services and resources focused on furthering students' leadership abilities as well as personal and professional development positively impacting the holistic learning and development of all UC Berkeley students. More specifically, OASIS provides advising and leadership development opportunities to student groups, including 1,100+ registered student organizations (RSOs) and campus-wide student leadership development and training initiatives and programs. Reporting to the OASIS Director, this position provides direct advising and support to Registered Student Organizations (RSOs).
