service to our students, supporting their academic goals and timely completion of their degrees.

As part of graduate-level student services team, you will:

- Serve as main point of contact with students and guide them through onboarding with the University and School of Management.
- Meet with students throughout the academic year to review procedures, course offerings, graduate handbook and answer student questions.
- Schedule and register management students for courses and assist with registration matters. Plan and assist with course scheduling, including coordinating a review of the proposed schedule for common conflicts and course reserve issues with the GPO team.
- Work with the faculty director to assist international students experiencing cross-cultural, personal, and family situations which may impact academic performance. Refer students to University resources and make work closely with Student Health Services, Accessibility Services, ISS, and other offices as needed to accommodate student needs.
- Communicate regularly with management students and faculty and review the current student section of webpage to ensure content is up to date and relevant.
- Conduct retention reviews with director and monitor students on probation. Execute graduation procedures for management students, communicate with, and collect all necessary documents for students to obtain their degrees and participate in Commencement.
- Plan and lead management orientation. Assist with co-curricular events in cooperation and consultation with GPO team to help provide a sense of community and co-curricular learning.
- Other related duties as assigned or needed.
