- Oversee project implementation for optimal results.

The Graphic Designer works under the supervision of the Assistant Director for Experiential Design to promote the exceptional programs and initiatives that help enhance the UB experience for students.

The selected candidate should possess an eye for detail and have the required skill set to devise intelligent design solutions that resonate with target audiences and support the University at Buffalo brand and its associated standards. The position will work as a member of the Student Life Marketing and Communication team requiring collaboration, flexibility, and the ability to multi-task and communicate effectively with campus and external partners.

Our team recognizes the advantages diverse perspectives and backgrounds bring to the workplace. We are particularly interested in candidates who share this value and will work to achieve the university's goals of inclusive excellence.

Outstanding Benefits Package

Working at UB comes with benefits that exceed salary alone. There are personal rewards including comprehensive health and retirement plan options. We also focus on creating and sustaining a healthy mix of work, personal and academic pursuit – all in an effort to support your work-life effectiveness. We support your growth and development through our career coaching and training department and we qualify as a public service loan forgiveness organization.
