Integral to this function, the incumbent will:

- Collaborate closely with departments/centers in the school to develop strategic marketing, advertising and promotional campaigns that align with the mission and vision of the unit, the school and UB.
  - Provide advanced direction/support to ensure quality and consistency of message content and design in digital media and print.
  - Create effective marketing materials, including printed collateral, digital assets and graphics, in collaboration with internal teams and external vendors.
  - Become an expert in and ensure adherence to UB and School of Management content, graphic and brand standards.
  - Curate and edit existing content and create tools and templates to help constituents adhere to standards and guide them in the effective use of those tools.
  - Generate ideas for, write and edit timely, top-level, high-use content to be presented in a compelling, creative format across multiple media.

- Digital communications and social media for school's sub-channels
  - Engage audiences through strategic writing, curating, editing and publishing of web content, social media, e-newsletters, blogs, graphics and video to meet the changing needs of our many publics.
  - Ensure that all digital content complies with ADA accessibility standards.
- Monitor and measure effectiveness of campaigns and tactics and create reports on results using data analytics, search engine optimization and other metrics. Assist departments/centers in making strategic and operational recommendations based on those results.
- Manage special projects as needed. Share in the department's administrative duties and planning of strategic and operational priorities.
