What You'll Do

A cover letter and resume are required for this position.

Reporting to the Dean of Admissions, the Director of Communications and Outreach serves as a member of the undergraduate admissions leadership team, developing and implementing office-wide strategy, policy, and practice with colleagues. The Director is responsible for ensuring that Tufts Admissions develops and executes communications that are engaging, informative, and accessible to a wide spectrum of students, school counselors, and college access advisors that we strive to reach. The Director also plays a leadership role in ensuring completion of all undergraduate application evaluation processes throughout the cycle. To accomplish these goals, the Director will oversee staff members with direct responsibility for leading the communications, outreach and access, and selection portfolios.

In addition to executing the assigned responsibilities, the Director's effectiveness will rely on their ability to contribute to and enhance a workplace culture that values mentorship, professional development, and comprehensive training. This role requires strategic thinking and a strong understanding of how prospective students and applicants engage with institutions throughout the applicant lifecycle. The Director will be responsible for ensuring consistent messaging through all written communication, print publications, and oral presentations (both on-campus and off-campus). The Director will ensure that Tufts offers an outstanding and authentic campus and virtual experience to prospective applicants, admitted students, and community organizations through purposeful and relevant programs. The Director will ensure that application review is completed in an effective and timely manner, in line with office and training protocol. The Director will partner with the Dean of Admissions and Director of Undergraduate Admissions to ensure enrollment objectives are met.

The Director must be an approachable leader with excellent communication skills, who is comfortable soliciting and providing feedback. A commitment to customer service, an eagerness to engage in-person with diverse audiences, an ability to delegate, and a genuine interest in mentoring colleagues at all levels of the organization are all essential qualities of a successful Director candidate.

While this is a hybrid position, there is an expectation of regular campus presence throughout the year.
