Job Description

The Primary Care Research Institute (PCRI) in the Department of Family Medicine seeks a Peer Recovery Support Specialist to support others in recovery from a substance use disorder. Funding will be provided by a grant awarded by the Erie County Department of Health on behalf of the Erie County Opioid Epidemic Task Force: 'Peer support workers to improve access to substance use treatment and recovery services in primary care settings.

This individual will serve as an advocate and motivator to recovering individuals to help promote long-term recovery. The Peer Support Specialist will develop trusting relations with patients while maintaining professional boundaries, help clients address challenges during the recovery process, and assist clients in linkage to and engagement in care. In addition, the peer will integrate with an interdisciplinary primary care team, to address barriers to care in a trauma -informed manner.
