- Assist in the implementation of core marketing and communications objectives by supporting integrated initiatives across digital, social, email, and web platforms.
- Manage and coordinate communication projects, ensuring timely content deployment and the effective execution of editorial calendars and content strategies.
- Participate in the strategic refresh of digital content, including updating or removing content in the CMS, and handle the posting and deployment of social media content.
- Establish and maintain project management procedures to oversee multiple communication initiatives, including checklists, proofing, approvals, and implementation activities.
- Monitor, track, and analyze email campaign performance, using insights to improve metrics and ensure that all content adheres to accessibility best practices.

The Communications & Project Coordinator will collaborate with faculty, researchers, and university leadership administrative professionals daily. Therefore, discretion, tact, and a knowledge of university etiquette for interacting with faculty and university leadership are essential.
