Description

To qualify for this position, students must be enrolled in 12+ units during the Fall and Spring Semesters and 6 units during the summer at Saddleback College.

The MESA Program would like to hire student workers, preferably MESA participants, to fill the following roles:

Office Support:

Under general supervision, the Student Worker would sit at the receptionist desk of the MESA Center; check in and check out MESA students; give tours to potential MESA students; restock supplies; organize, maintain, and clean the MESA Center when needed.

Lead Peer Mentor:

Under general supervision, the MESA Lead Peer Mentor will be responsible for the planning and execution of activities for participating mentors and mentees. Lead Peer Mentors will assist professional staff in the development of mentor meet ups and the program training materials. The MESA Lead Peer Mentor will check-in regularly with MESA mentors regarding communication with assigned MESA mentee. The MESA Lead Peer Mentor will also provide general support to the MESA program and potentially to the SC Mentor Collect as assigned.

Events Support:

Under general supervision, the Student Worker will be responsible for general promotion of MESA events. Responsibilities will include passing out and putting up flyers around campus, and sending reminder emails and texts to MESA participants. If their schedule allows, Student Workers may be asked to staff MESA events and write up a general summary of how the event went.

Group Study Sessions Helper

Under general supervision, the Student Worker will be responsible for creating a calendar of when study groups meet by class or subject matter. The Student Worker will send out reminders to MESA participants of pertinent study groups and ensure that students sign in/out of the MESA center.
