- Advise online MSW students regarding program information, procedures, academic requirements, and licensure/certification requirements. Triage online student concerns and review and address registration issues. Serve as the initial point of contact for online students in need of support.
- Develop and implement orientation programming and academic support initiatives specific to the online student population, addressing their unique needs related to time management, academic skill development, and readiness for graduate-level learning.
- Conduct program assessments and plan events to build a sense of community among online students.
- Conduct mid-semester outreach to online students at risk of failing coursework.
- Assist online students with navigating university student support services from a distance.
- Guide online MSW students in clarifying professional career goals through programming and individual advisement.
- Support online recruitment initiatives including marketing planning and implementation and online/virtual information sessions.
- Facilitate efforts to make schoolwide events and programs accessible to online students, ensuring they have the same opportunities for engagement and participation as on-campus students.
- Support school faculty and staff across units with reaching and connecting with online students.
- Collaborate with the Faculty Liaison for Racially Underrepresented Students to develop programming and resources in support of racially underrepresented online students.
- Perform other duties as assigned.
