The University of California, Berkeley, is one of the world's leading institutions of higher education, distinguished by its combination of internationally recognized academic and research excellence; the transformative opportunity it provides to a large and diverse student body; its public mission and commitment to equity and social justice; and its roots in the California experience, animated by such values as innovation, questioning the status quo, and respect for the environment and nature. Since its founding in 1868, Berkeley has fueled a perpetual renaissance, generating unparalleled intellectual, economic and social value in California, the United States and the world.

We are looking for equity-minded applicants who represent the full diversity of California and who demonstrate a sensitivity to and understanding of the diverse academic, socioeconomic, cultural, disability, gender identity, sexual orientation, and ethnic backgrounds present in our community. When you join the team at Berkeley, you can expect to be part of an inclusive, innovative and equity-focused community that approaches higher education as a matter of social justice that requires broad collaboration among faculty, staff, students and community partners. In deciding whether to apply for a position at Berkeley, you are strongly encouraged to consider whether your values align with our Guiding Values and Principles, our Principles of Community, and our Strategic Plan.

At UC Berkeley, we believe that learning is a fundamental part of working, and our goal is for everyone on the Berkeley campus to feel supported and equipped to realize their full potential. We actively support this by providing all of our staff employees with at least 80 hours (10 days) of paid time per year to engage in professional development activities. To find out more about how you can grow your career at UC Berkeley, visit grow.berkeley.edu.

Departmental Overview

Facilities Services, a department within Facilities Services, is responsible for the maintenance of the campus buildings that total approximately 9.2 million square feet of state-funded space plus approximately 4 million square feet of auxiliary services space. To maintain a campus that is conducive to excellence in learning, research, and public safety, Facilities Services staff provides a full range of services, including custodial and grounds support, building maintenance, pest management, recycling and refuse collection, and management of utility infrastructure. Facilities Services also manages the purchase and operation of energy resources and provides specialized engineering and technical services. Additionally, Facilities Services has a support service group which consists of Accounting, Customer Care, Fleet Services, Procurement - Contracts and Storehouse, and the Call and Business Center. The Call and Business Center is the central contact point for campus maintenance requests.
