Job Description

The Veggie Van Training Center is seeking a Veggie Van market assistant to support our mission of creating equitable and just food systems both locally and nationally. We operate an on-campus mobile market which addresses food insecurity on campus by selling reduced cost fresh and locally grown fruits and vegetables to students. We are also home of the Mobile Market Coalition \(MMC\), a national network of practitioners, researchers, funders, and policymakers advancing mobile produce markets as essential infrastructure for a responsive and resilient food system in which everyone has access to healthy food.

This is a part-time on-site role located at the University at Buffalo. The Market Assistant will work with the Veggie Van Coordinator to run on campus mobile produce markets with the support of campus and community stakeholders. This includes mobile market operations, engaging in outreach and marketing efforts, customer service, and driving the van. The coordinator will also work with community and
