Overview

The Graduate School of Arts and Sciences (GSAS) Dean's Office supports the vision and strategy of the Graduate Dean and strives to create an intellectually engaging experience for the graduate students. The office interacts with all administrative units that touch graduate students, including academic affairs, admissions, student affairs, and alumni development. The office oversees the admission of students to all graduate degree programs, awards scholarships, fellowships, and teaching assistantships in consultation with academic departments, and reviews academic standing and policies governing all graduate students in Arts and Sciences. The office also oversees curriculum changes across and development of new graduate programs, as well as develops and implements Academic and professional development programs for graduate students.

What You'll D

Under minimal supervision, the Senior Administrative Coordinator applies advanced knowledge and skills to support the advising and student-facing activities of GSAS, putting into practice the vision set by GSAS's Assistant Dean. The Senior Administrative Coordinator will:

- Develop advising protocols and provide direct advising requirements for certificate, part-time, and post-baccalaureate students as needed.
- Provide administrative support to the Directors of Program Development and Post-Baccalaureate Programs.

What We're Looking For

Basic Requirements:

- Knowledge and skills as typically acquired by a High School/GED
- 7+ years
- College degree may serve as a substitute for some years of experience
- Advanced knowledge of all features of Microsoft office suite
- Experience coordinating financial transactions and working with restricted funding sources
- Advanced organizational, interpersonal and leadership skills

Preferred Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree preferred
