The Staff Assistant III (Counseling) reports to the Division Dean of Counseling at San Jose City College. The work schedule is 12 months per year; Monday - Friday; 8:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

This position is represented by the California School Employees Association (CSEA), Chapter 363.

POSITION PURPOSE

Under the direction of an assigned administrator, this position performs difficult and diversified clerical and general typing duties involving the application of standard procedures to a variety of details requiring the use of discretion and judgement in support of the operations, preparation and maintenance of a variety of records and reports, or the academic professional staff of an administrative or program office. Responsibilities may include providing technical or functional lead direction to hourly or student assistants.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

This is the advanced level in the Staff Assistant job series. Positions are responsible for the independent performance of the full range of general office clerical operations. The work requires a comprehensive knowledge of the functions and structures of the office, as well as a good knowledge of related functions, organizations and personnel of other offices and programs. The incumbents are responsible for planning and organizing the clerical work of the office as well as for establishing priorities and determining deadlines. Typically, incumbents are responsible for providing clerical support to several individuals in the office. These positions require utilization of an overall knowledge of the office operations in the preparation of reports, follow-up on action items, and anticipation of the potential impact of proposed procedural or administrative policy changes on the current clerical operations of the office. Day-to-day work is performed without instructions and is normally reviewed only in terms of overall accomplishments usually by academic or administrative members of the staff. Incumbents in this position at this level may also perform secretarial type duties and responsibilities in support of the head of the office in conjunction with the general office clerical work.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Perform difficult clerical and analytical tasks requiring a thorough knowledge of program, department and college policies and procedures.
2. Receive, screen, review and verify a variety of correspondence, documents or applications.
3. Establish and maintain office files, reports, logs, accounts records and specialized or technical documents including employee time and assignment records, and a wide variety of correspondence
