Position Description

Position Overview:

Definition:

Under general supervision, provides a variety of complex student support services for international students, including monitoring and reporting enrollment into Student Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) and verifying visa and immigration status; develops and implements recruitment strategies and marketing materials; provides information and assistance to students and visitors regarding registration, student records, and admissions.

Supervision Received and Exercised:

Receives general supervision from the Assistant Director, Admissions and Records. May provide technical and functional direction to assigned administrative support staff or student workers.

Class Characteristics:

This is the journey-level classification in the International Student Services Specialist class series. Incumbents are capable of performing the full range of international student support services. Incumbents at this level receive only occasional instruction or assistance as new or unusual situations arise and are fully aware of the operating procedures and policies of the work unit. This class is distinguished from Admissions and Records Specialist classifications by primarily providing support to international students and ensuring compliance with immigration and District policies, procedures, rules, and regulations. This class is further distinguished from the Lead International Student Services Specialist in the latter is responsible for more complex and higher-level of technical laws related to international students, exercises a higher level of discretion and independent decision-making, and provides technical and functional direction to lower-level support staff.

Examples of Essential Functions(Illustrative Only):

1. Serves as Designated School Official (DSO), including enrolling immigrant students and issuing Certificate of Eligibility, Form I-20; prepares, maintains, and monitors student records and documentation for international students in accordance with Department of Homeland Security (DHS)
