Community College of Philadelphia is an open-admission, predominantly Black institution and a minority-serving institution, associate-degree-granting institution which provides access to higher education for all who may benefit. As a minority-serving institution, the College aims to improve student success and eliminate racial equity gaps. Its programs of study in the liberal arts and sciences, career technologies, and basic academic skills provide a coherent foundation for college transfer, employment and lifelong learning. The College serves Philadelphia by preparing its students to be informed and concerned citizens, active participants in the cultural life of the city, and enabled to meet the changing needs of business, industry and the professions. To help address broad economic, cultural and political concerns in the city and beyond, the College draws together students from a wide range of ages and backgrounds and seeks to provide the programs and support they need to achieve their goals.

Specific Responsibilities

- Provide academic and social assistance to students as needed and when assigned by relevant staff.
- Support students by identifying their needs and connecting them to Gateway's academic mentoring resources and the College's support services.
- Support relevant Gateway staff in duties such as distribution and collection of student sign-in attendance sheets, resource materials, and alerting Gateway staff of any concerning behaviors exhibited by student(s).
- Monitor student progress through Gateway's and the College's student progress and data management platforms, such as Banner and Starfish and provide assistance and guidance to students enrolled in online high school credit recovery courses.
- Assist Gateway staff by preparing workshop materials and providing individual and group student assistance during the delivery of workshops.
- Work in tandem with relevant Gateway staff to assess the effectiveness of online high school credit recovery and Achievement Lab.
- Assist relevant Gateway staff in programming to successfully prepare students for college-level coursework.
- Submit all required paperwork and student progress tracking forms
- Regularly update relevant Gateway staff on student progress.
- Attend Gateway team meetings, other relevant meetings, and engage in program activities as directed;
- Perform other duties as directed
