Departmental Overview

UC Berkeley Youth Recreation (formerly Cal Youth Camps) leads the way in providing summer camps for kids of all ages. Located on the UC Berkeley campus for more than 60 years, we offer high-caliber, impactful, and fun camps.

Position Summary

Camp Leads provide leadership to assigned seasonal camp programs. Camp Leads are responsible for management of assigned staff, development, implementation, and overall communication with parents and families. Camp Leads serve on seasonal summer camp leadership team and report directly to the Youth Camps Supervisor.

Camp Leads regularly work on tasks that are varied and complex. They apply a full range of specialized skills and job knowledge and frequently adapts procedures, techniques, tools, materials, and/or equipment to meet specialized needs. Camp Leads perform broad and/or focused assignments under general supervision. Originality and ingenuity are often required to help establish procedures in functional area. Camp Leads rely on experience and judgment to plan and accomplish assigned tasks.

Camp Leads must be a specialized and skilled leader for a non-credited recreational or sports program. Camp Leads create and implement recreational programs for participants of all ages and may serve as a lead or mentor for other program instructors and may be required to provide instruction. Program leaders at this level are required to demonstrate considerable discretion, initiative and independence to resolve issues and perform other duties as assigned.
