The Recruit Officer is a non-sworn member of the WPI Police Department who will support our mission to provide a safe and secure living and learning environment for all members of and visitors to our community.

The Recruit Officer will be hired after completing all mandatory Massachusetts Police Training Council (MPTC) pre-academy entry processes, and with the understanding that the recruit officer will enter a Massachusetts Police Training Council (MPTC) recruit-officer police academy as a new candidate hire and successfully graduate from that academy achieving POST certification as a law enforcement officer.

WPI is passionate about creating an inclusive workplace that promotes and values diversity. We are looking for candidates who can support our commitment to equity, diversity and inclusion.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Responsibilities:

- Assist WPI Police staff by performing safety and security inspections of campus buildings and grounds on foot and in vehicles.
- Backfill position of WPI Police Dispatcher. Provide public safety related services to members and visitors to the WPI Community.
- Renders assistance to those in need and has the knowledge and ability to make referrals to campus resources as applicable.
- Able to author well written reports.
- Provides information to the public and community members while promoting positive campus safety and community relations.
- When offered, attends and graduates from a MPTC authorized full time recruit officer academy.

Depending on the amount of time between hire and the beginning of the recruit academy, the candidate will be required to successfully complete ten weeks of WPI Police dispatch and field training.

Once the recruit officer graduates from the academy, they will be required to complete any outstanding WPI Police dispatch and field training before transitioning to the role of Campus Police Officer.

Requirements:

- High School Diploma.
- Successful completion of all required MPTC pre-academy entrance requirements.
