Position Overview:

Definition:

Under general supervision, performs a variety of advanced administrative support duties that requires a significant level of knowledge of the assigned division, its services policies, procedures, and operational details.

Supervision Received and Exercised:

Receives general supervision from managerial personnel or similar high-level administrator. Exercises technical and functional direction over and provides training to student or hourly workers and to less experienced support staff, as assigned.

Class Characteristics:

The Administrative Specialist IV classification is the fourth level in the Administrative Specialist series which is comprised of four (4) levels. Positions in the series are distinguished by reporting and working relationships, level of independence, supervision received and exercised, decision making, judgment, and minimum qualifications for employment consideration.

The Administrative Specialist IV level typically performs a wide variety of advanced administrative tasks to relieve division head of routine matters. Incumbents at this level are capable of performing advanced and complex administrative support duties with little or no supervision, including coordinating and administering complex budgetary functions, providing overall division office coordination and management, and assisting in division-related projects and programs. Incumbents at this level are required to be fully trained in all procedures related to the assigned division of responsibility, working with an advanced degree of independent judgment, tact, and initiative. This class is distinguished from other Administrative Specialist classifications in that it may be specifically assigned to a division head and performs a greater number and variety of advanced and complex functions with an advanced degree of independent judgement. This class is distinguished from the Executive Assistant series in that the latter is responsible for providing administrative support to a Vice President or Senior Executive.
