The Admissions Counselor will be a member of the undergraduate admissions team, responsible for recruiting and selecting students and for fulfilling the enrollment objectives set by the University. The Admissions Counselor will be expected to:

- Read and evaluate undergraduate applications in alignment with training protocol, individually or as part of a team, and actively participate in selection committees.
- Conduct both in-person and virtual information sessions for prospective students, families, school and community-based organization counselors, and the general public.
- Serve as on-campus point-of-contact for visitors. Communicate with students, families, school/organization counselors, and the general public via in-person conversations, email, phone, or blogs.
- Participate in recruitment initiatives, including college fairs and high school visits.
- Contribute to project-based work in support of portfolios such as communications, access and outreach, recruitment, selection, international, events, or others.
- Participate in professional development and training opportunities to gain a broad understanding of admissions profession and the specific goals of Tufts Admissions.
- Complete other projects and duties as assigned.

While our office functions in a hybrid modality, the Admissions Counselor can expect to have a frequent campus presence given increased visitor engagement responsibilities.

What We're Looking For

Basic Requirements:

- Knowledge and experience as typically acquired by a Bachelor's Degree
- 0-2 years of experience in admissions, college counseling, or a related field
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office Suite
- Strong communication, public speaking, and interpersonal skills
- Strong organizational and time management skills; ability to work collaboratively
- Cultural sensitivity and a willingness to work with diverse populations
