Departmental Overview

ERSO is a central administrative hub providing comprehensive research and administrative services to the College of Engineering, College of Environmental Design, Computing, Data Science & Society, Mathematical & Physical Sciences Division, School of Information, and various large research Institutes and Centers.

The Shipping and Receiving Clerk, within ERSO Business Services, performs a variety of services for ERSO involved in receiving, storing, accounting for, and distributing equipment, apparatus, materials, and supplies. The S & R Clerk performs equipment inventory tracking and is responsible for providing enterprise-wide distribution services to faculty, staff and students located currently in multiple campus buildings, and to a large, currently splintered, complex instructional laboratory program. Commodities include, but are not limited to highly specialized research equipment and supplies, fabricated apparatus, computers, software applications, furniture and office supplies. The incumbent utilizes both powered and non-powered materials handling equipment as required.

The position is expected to work in a highly collaborative and fast-paced environment where initiative, creativity, ownership, responsibility, and calculated risk form the basis for success.
