Essential Functions:

At Clovis Community College we value the ability to serve students from a broad range of cultural heritages, socioeconomic backgrounds, genders, abilities and orientations. We prioritize applicants who demonstrate they understand the benefits a diverse student population brings to a community college. The successful candidate will be an equity-minded leader committed to student success achieved through collaboration with faculty, classified staff, administration, students and community partners who are also dedicated to closing equity gaps.

An equity-minded individual is a person who:

1. Understands the importance of holding ourselves accountable as educators for closing equity gaps and engaging in equitable practices;
2. Reframes inequities as a problem of practice and views the elimination of inequities as an individual and collective responsibility;
3. Encourages positive race-consciousness and embraces human difference;
4. Supports institutional practices that both develop and sustain culturally responsive teaching and learning environments; and
5. Strategically builds support for and participation in equity-related initiatives across both our internal and external communities.

Clovis Community College seeks leaders who value placing the student at the center of everything we do, mentorship and working in a collegial, collaborative environment. Leaders should be open and willing to participate in culturally relevant professional development that will help them prepare for the population of students who attend Clovis Community College.

The ideal candidate will share Clovis Community College's commitment to educating its racially and socioeconomically diverse student population. For the 2023-2024 academic year, we enrolled over 15,000 students in which 51% identify as Latinx, 13% as Asian/Pacific Islander, 4% as Black/African American, 26% as White, 1% as American Indian/Alaska Native, and 4% as multiracial. Clovis Community College is a Hispanic-Serving Institution, reflecting the great responsibility that the College has to the educational attainment and economic well-being of the surrounding community. The successful candidate will join a department dedicated to providing services responsive to the students it serves.

Under the direction of the Dean of Instruction, the position will include coordinating and assisting with the oversight of the day-to-day operations of Student Success and Equity programming with an emphasis on basic needs and retention services, collaborating and implementing student success and equity initiatives, and serves as a point-of-contact offering support and encouragement to students, faculty, counselors, and administrative staff regarding equity and student success.

Student Success Coordinators will:

- Implement projects that will contribute significantly to the Office of Student Success and Equity with an emphasis on basic needs and retention services;
- Collaborate with both Instructional and Academic Counseling faculty and staff in special programs, such as Guided Pathways, EOPS, NextUp, TRIO, DSPS, CalWorks and other programs (as appropriate) to maximize student success and equitable access.
- Collaborate with various support services such as Academic Counseling, the Tutorial Center, Career Center, and Library to ensure that students are knowledgeable and are utilizing the support services to reach their academic goal;
- Provide students information on how to properly navigate college policies, procedures, and access resources;
- Collaborate with K-12 and Industry partners to identify, recruit, track, and manage perspective college students who may be at-risk and educate these students on the support services available;
- Collaborate with Academic Counseling and College Relations in outreach and registration events and activities to improve the effectiveness of outreach activities, research and advocate for necessary updates, and bridge gaps of student access in particular for our students from under-represented groups;
- Collaborate with faculty and staff to identify and implement interventions designed to meet the needs of students and increase equitable engagement of students across the campus;
- Track and analyze student success and equity data;
- Forge meaningful partnerships/relationships with various community agencies and external stakeholders to connect with and support students;
- Serve on cross-functional teams for select student development initiatives and programs such as student activities, commencement, welcome activities, and other special events;
- Maintain a comprehensive listing of off-campus referral services and points of contact;
- Report to the Dean of Instruction responsible for the collaborations, activities and programming related to student success and equity for the AgTEC Program;
- Participate in professional development activities, program development and review, student activities, and committees;
- Participate in program review, student learning outcome development and assessment to improve student learning;
- Serve on college-wide committees and attending faculty meetings, as necessary to support and enrich college programs and activities, and participating in student success and equity initiatives;
