Departmental Overview

The University of California, Berkeley, is the preeminent public university in the country. We're also one of the leading employers in the San Francisco Bay Area. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics consists of more than 275 staff members and coaches and sponsors 30 varsity sports programs. These 30 programs include more than 850 student-athletes who participate in the various sports programs annually within the National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA). We are currently seeking a Senior Director, Events who will work within the department's Events Management unit.

Position Summary

The Events Management unit plays a key role in planning and hosting all IA events, including home competitions, special events, and other events as indicated (such as outside rentals, pre or post season tournaments, etc.). Works closely with Sports Supervisors, Coaches, and critical support units in the planning and implementing of all events hosted on Campus. This position works with other departments on campus as well as outside vendors in order to meet all safety requirements, comply with NCAA policy, and ensure that everything runs smoothly on game days. Our events take place in various venues (pools, fields, courts, gyms) and the events vary in complexity based on the location, the crowd size, and the particular team. Provides direction to employees and contractors according to established policies and management guidance. Works on issues where analysis of situation or data requires review of relevant factors. Exercises judgment within defined procedures and policies to determine appropriate action. In charge of emergency action plans for each venue while in event mode and responsible for implementing measure to ensure the safety of the public and participants.
