The Campus Police dispatcher serves as a non-sworn member of the Campus Police department. The dispatcher is responsible for answering emergency and business-related phone calls and operating all aspects of radio communications. The dispatcher monitors security and alarm systems, performs data entry, processes parking permits, assists with card access systems, and welcomes walk-in traffic to the police department. Additional duties include functioning as a community services officer supplementing campus police patrol staff with public safety related services.

Entry-level candidates who are interested in starting a career in law enforcement are encouraged to apply. Cover letters are required.

JOB DESCRIPTION Responsibilities

- Operate a multi-line telephone system.
- Direct emergency and routine calls to police and university personnel providing pertinent information and necessary resources.
- Document information concerning calls for service and incidents within the police daily log using IMC software.
- Monitor intrusion, duress, fire and card access alarms.
- Initiate and coordinate service requests with internal and external university partners.
- Provide efficient, professional, and courteous interactions at the police service window.
- Relay confidential LEAPS/CJIS/NCIC information to authorized personnel.
- Perform required tasks related to campus parking.
- Assist police personnel by performing security services, traffic control, and parking enforcement.
- Provide public safety services to the WPI Community while promoting positive campus safety community relations.

Requirements:

- High School Diploma.
- Successful completion of a high school education or equivalent.
- Successful completion of an oral interview and background check.
- Being of good moral character and fit for employment for public safety service in a university setting.
- Dependable and possess highly efficient communication and interpersonal skills.
- Able to multi-task and work efficiently and accurately in stressful situations.
