Position Summary

The Primary Care Research Institute (PCRI) in the Department of Family Medicine seeks a Case Manager responsible for case management and community outreach with criminal justice-involved or formerly criminal justice-involved individuals with co-occurring substance use and mental health problems in the Erie County Comprehensive Opioid, Stimulant, and Substance Use Program, using the MISSION-CJ (Maintaining Independence and Sobriety through Systems Integration, Outreach, and Networking - Criminal Justice Edition) evidence-based model.

Duties and Responsibilities Include:

- Meet with participants to discuss their needs in the community (e.g., connecting them with mental health and substance use services, recreational opportunities, self-help groups, transportation resources, etc.).
- Provide vocational/educational support to help participants maintain employment and find new employment/educational opportunities.
- Collaborate, care plan and work with criminal justice entities (e.g., probation, parole, courts) to support participants in reducing recidivism over time.
- Provide person-centered care planning and goal setting using the motivational interviewing approach.
- Identify, educate and support caregiver network.
- Introduce self-management tools and community support services.
- Document care plan, client interactions, and linkages in Client Management System in a timely fashion.
- Meet with community partners to assure grant deliverables are met.
- Assist Project Coordinator with data management, grant reporting, and overall project management.
