Position Summary

Join the Parking and Transportation Services team at the University at Buffalo and drive the difference! As an Evening Shuttle Bus Operator, you will play a vital role in keeping our campus community connected by providing safe, reliable, and courteous shuttle services during the evening shift of 2:00 p.m. - 10:30 p.m. This position offers an opportunity to support students, faculty, and staff, including those with disabilities, while ensuring a welcoming and accessible campus environment.

Responsibilities:

- Provide Shuttle Service: Operate university shuttle buses on designated routes during evening shifts, ensuring timely and safe transportation for students, faculty, and staff across campus.
- Vehicle Maintenance: Perform regular cleaning and pre-/post-trip inspections of shuttle buses to maintain cleanliness, safety, and operational standards.
- Support Accessibility: Assist those with disabilities through dedicated transportation services, ensuring safe and comfortable travel.
- Customer Service: Interact with passengers professionally, addressing inquiries and providing assistance as needed to enhance their experience.
- Safety Compliance: Adhere to all traffic regulations, university policies, and safety protocols to ensure the well-being of passengers and pedestrians.
- Report Issues: Document and report any incidents, accidents or maintenance needs promptly to supervisors.

This position is defined as safety-sensitive, and as such, is subject to alcohol and drug testing under the Omnibus Transportation Employee Testing Act of 1991.
