Additionally, you will coordinate advising related efforts with stakeholders across campus, such as Accessibility Resources, Financial Aid, International Student Services (ISS), Office of the Registrar, Orientation, Transition and Parent Programs (OTTP) and other units, to ensure appropriate and consistent support for our undergraduates. This position supervises the Director of the Exploratory and Pre-Professional Advising Center, reports to the Dean of Undergraduate Education and is a key member of the Dean's leadership team.

Key accountabilities and responsibilities:

- As a member of Undergraduate Education leadership, provide strategic input and expertise regarding academic advising, undergraduate initiatives and policies related to student success and academic progress.
- Serve as the primary university academic advisement leader; acting as liaison to academic and service units including academic deans, advising leadership and faculty on matters related to student advisement services; coordinating campus-wide advisement initiatives; developing expectations for standardized advising practices, use of appropriate technology platforms and communication methods; and coordinating professional development and advising assessment.
- Contribute to long-range research and strategic planning aimed at improving student satisfaction, retention and graduation through impactful advising services. Utilize data-driven insights to identify opportunities to help achieve student success outcomes and make recommendations to address challenges related to academic advisement and retention.
- Convene an Advising Council on behalf of the Dean of Undergraduate Education, consisting of campus advising unit leadership for purposes of advising coordination and standardization, strategic consultation, communication, and dissemination.
- Disseminate and ensure academic advisement best practices and ethical standards are followed such as those promulgated by the National Academic Advising Association (NACADA)
- As requested, represent Undergraduate Education on campus-wide committees offering expertise in relation to academic advisement services and students' needs.
- Present to students, families, and campus partners regarding academic advising and student success.
- Supervise the Director of the Exploratory and Pre-Professional Advisement Center (EPAC)
