The Head Coach Volleyball/WPE Instructor is responsible for providing leadership and direction for all aspects of the Volleyball program as they compete competitively in NCAA Division III athletics while providing an educational environment which enhances the development of the whole student-athlete. Additional responsibilities include teaching courses in physical education as well as departmental administrative responsibilities.

WPI is passionate about creating an inclusive workplace that promotes and values diversity. We are looking for candidates who can support our commitment to equity, diversity and inclusion.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Responsibilities:

- Provide leadership and direction to the volleyball program; create a culture of compliance with NCAA rules and regulations as well as New England Women and Men Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) and WPI university policies and procedures.
- Develop team and individual strategies to create an environment of success through effective teaching of technical and fundamental volleyball skills.
- Responsible for direct supervision of assistant coach(s), and any other personnel management duties as required to maintain a successful staff.
- Recruit prospective student-athletes committed to academic and athletic excellence; establish ways to ensure success for all team members academically, athletically, and socially.
- Maintain a strong connection with the WPI volleyball alumni group through communication and relationship development.
- Responsible for successfully managing the program's operating and fundraising budgets.
- Teach physical education courses.
- Perform other administrative duties as assigned.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree required.
- 3-5 years of secondary/collegiate coaching experience.
- Demonstrated ability in athletic administration, leadership, and recruitment.
